

AS English Language Personalised Learning Checklist

Unit 2: ENGB2- Creating texts (40% of AS, 20% of A2)

(Coursework)

R	A	G
---	---	---

Practicalities:

Two pieces of original writing, differentiated by primary audience, purpose and genre to show awareness of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The use of register and style • Characteristics of genres and sub-genres • The impact of language choices (lexis and grammar) and discourse strategies • The purposes and skills of planning, drafting and redrafting • The total length of the two pieces of writing should be between 1500 and 2500 words
--	--	--	--

Skills:

AO4 write effectively in a form and style matched to audience, purpose and genre
AO4 select and order relevant content
AO4 identify where, and suggest how, key linguistic features are used in your writing to create specific effects.

Practicalities:

Two commentaries which explore the writing process and assess the success of the individual pieces, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The use of primary sources and of clear referencing of these materials • Skills associated with analysing and reviewing the writing process and the reception of their own texts • The total length of the two commentaries should be 1000 words In addition they should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explicitly referenced sources (paper and web-based) • Annotated style model(s) and evidence of early planning/preparation.
--	--	--	--

Skills:

AO1 communicate relevant knowledge and understanding of the methods of language study
AO1 consistently use appropriate terminology to support interpretations when applying this understanding
AO1 structure and organise your writing well
AO1 communicate content and meaning through expressive and accurate writing.
AO2 communicate relevant understanding of linguistic approaches, concepts and issues
AO2 explore the significant features of linguistic variation that create meaning in spoken and written language
AO2 generally use specific references to support your responses
AO3 explore the relationships between spoken and written language and the contexts in which both are used
AO3 communicate a practical understanding of issues relating to language in use.			