

History Yr12 Personalised Learning Checklist – Unit 2 – Late Saxon and Early Norman England.

General Skills	R	A	G
Have you got yourself a new folder for this unit?
Is your work well organised?
Do you contribute to lessons?
Do you spend a good amount of time going over your school work at home?
Do you always make the best effort you can with class work?
Do you always make the best effort you can with homework?
Do you meet deadlines?
Do you understand the feedback you are given on your work?
Do you act upon feedback given with detailed BIB?
Have you read through the textbook and made notes on all aspects of it?
Have you extended your knowledge by doing extra reading?
Have you asked your teacher for help if you get stuck?
Do you attend after school sessions?
Have you started a revision timetable?
Have you got a preferred method of preparing for an exam?
Have you used the past exam papers?

History Yr12 Personalised Learning Checklist – Unit 2 – Late Saxon and Early Norman England.

AO1 Written Communication and Knowledge – this is Section B of the exam
Do you use highly accurate factual knowledge?
Are you focused on the question?
Do you make sure that every point you make is supported by evidence?
Do you make sure that key historical words are spelt correctly?
Do you reach your own judgements to the questions asked?
AO2 Using Sources Q1 and Q2
Do you analyse the uses of the both the source provenance and content?
Do you analyse the limitations of the both the source provenance and content?
Do you use plenty of specific quotes from the sources to prove your points?
Do you use a lot of your own knowledge to evaluate how useful source evidence is?
Do you reach a judgement based on the sources in answer to a question?			